1. Heard both sides. While granting bail, the Court has imposed condition that both the applicants would report to the concerned police station which is Dongri police station once a month. In my view, the condition cannot be said to be stringent. However, as far as applicant no.2 is concerned, it is seen that he is a senior citizen aged about 61 years and residing at village Bhadavale, Taluka Dapoli, Dist. Ratnagiri. Taking into account his age and the fact that he is residing out of Bombay, condition is relaxed to the extent that it is clarified that applicant no.2 will report to the station house officer Dongri police station once in every 6 months on the first Monday of January and first Monday of July. Liberty to applicant no.1 to apply after a period of one year. Application stands disposed of.
